Administrative Reports

- Chair- I was able to send the letter in support of the Regional Speaker Jam for the Appomattox area. I also asked Ed H. to take some literature to a conference here in Roanoke that asked for NA representation. Since we didn't have an area meeting until after the event, I didn't feel confrontable to assign someone to attend on behalf of the area since we do not have a PR chair. Our activities and HI committee has worked together to put together a learning day and Women/men rap, so please get the word out in the area. We need people to understand service so we can fill our empty position with qualified individuals. In Loving Service Amy P.
- Secretary: Emailed March Minutes courtesy of Vice Secretary. minutes a week late because of personal reasons. Emailed and sent out hard copies last week before as many group consciences as possible. A total of 38 copies of Area forms made and 8 copies of the minutes (4 for area & 4 for people that wanted minutes mailed) totaling $19.33 which receipts were given to the treasurer today & will be reimbursed. No copies were made other than minutes last month, that is why it was over the $15.00. In loving service, Shannon B.
- VRCC Director: Pro temp policy chair and Vice Treasure. Pre-Convention T shirt is 15 from 20. Registration price 30 if before October 2019. $40 after if after Nov. 1

Subcommittee Reports

- H&I All is going well within the H&I subcommittee. We are meeting all Four of our commitments on time each week. And have received positive feedback. We continue to work hard on our upcoming learning day and currently have one speaker coming from Lynchburg, we are writing skits and securing a second speaker. We are always looking for more members to help carry the. ILS, Brittny D.

Activities- Hello Family, please accept this report in my absence. I am not feeling well. Activities Subcommittee will meet Saturday, April 20 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Marks, 1008 Franklin Rd. SW. This month's meeting was rescheduled. message. Our next subcommittee meeting will be Sunday, April 28 at noon and all are welcome to attend the H&I Learning Day and Raps are in track for May 4th, 12 noon - 5 p.m. The flier is in the website. If you want one electronically, please let me know Wasena Shelter has been reserved for Memorial Day picnic. More will be revealed. IN loving service, Denise Y.

- Time for Change: We are opening early and closing on time. We are getting 15-30 people each week. Recovery is being disguised at all meetings. GSR did not show up to Area so no Literature or Area donation this month. Things are going well. In loving service. Howard E.
- Weekends in Recovery: Hello Family, we are opening & closing on time. Attendance has seemed to decrease since moving upstairs to the chapel. The church has told homegroup members that the ceiling is still being worked on with no estimated time when that will be finished. Donna L. will be celebrating 4 years. On May 19th In loving service, Alisia G.

Open forum - 15 minutes

Phillip - asked if secretary could take the names of the people who didn't receive meetings & res
end the minutes

Suggested for everyone to put their info so they can be resent

Brought if another area has put the letter of intent for convention

Phillip brought up the discrepancy regarding treasury report

Can't change the prudent reserve amount due to program is locked

Stacey will work with Peter to see if we can unlock it or make an amendment to the bottom of the report

Brought up for the treasury to give a full report at the end of area service starting with beginning balance from previous month & the ending balance after all orders have been submitted & donations submitted. Suggested that everyone have orders in by 2-30 pm so they can get the report submitted by the end of the meeting. Voted to extend open forum for 3 minutes - approved

Then discussion about the what time area starts - Peter states they get here at 2 pm allow people to put their order in so they can give report

Motion put in to change the time for area from 2-4:30 pm

- To host the 2020 Convention, we would need a letter of intent & letter of recommendation from another Area.
  - Fatally Cool has been officially added to the meeting lists
