Open Forum

- Addict mentions, when did activities become a “free for all?” Another member mentions that Activities is fully self-supporting
- Homegroup member from Gift of Homegroup in Moneta has come with a concern. As of this past weekend she is now alone with running the homegroup. The homegroup attendance has not been doing well this year that it has been opened. There is a debate whether to close the group permanently or not.
- Addict mentions a concern for the Tuesday evening Raleigh Court meeting. The doors are opening late, and meeting is closing g early. It was stated that this is not a good message for newcomers. The meeting list for that group is from 8-9 p.m. therefore that’s when the meeting, no less.
